

Skills
Development
Scotland

in association with

FILMCITYFUTURES

GRADUATE TRANSITIONS & BEYOND

AN EVENT FOR GRADUATES AND EMERGING FILM/TV PROFESSIONALS

8th December 2015
at Film City Glasgow
1.00 pm – 6.00 pm

Have you recently graduated with a film, television or media qualification? Do you want to know how to get your foot on the ladder or why your job search is now moving into its second year?

Or even more frustratingly, is the career making gig still eluding you, as you hone your tea making skills on jobs you never wanted in the first place?

Well come and meet the people who can advise you on how to make the right noises to get noticed. What are the roads best travelled and how do you hone what you have learned already to make it pay dividends in the creative industries? What skill sets do you need to succeed?

An insider's look at how to start developing your career pathway.

The focus of the afternoon will be on:

- Developing & producing Feature Films & TV Drama
- The process of Commissioning and forming relationships with Drama Commissioners
- Current trends in the industry across drama, docu-drama, features and digital innovations.
- Understanding key financial & business skills to progress projects
- Optimising your career and development opportunities.
- Case studies with executives from the industry across the broadcasters & feature film networks.

GUEST SPEAKERS

DI Brown
Talent Manager
BBC Scotland

Brian Coffey
Producer
Sigma Films

Martin McCardie
Writer

Adrian Banyard
*Development
Producer,
Drama, STV*

Lindsay Goddall
Producer. Beau Films

Leonie Rae
Gasson
*Production
Assistant*
La Belle Allee

There's no fee, however applicants must submit application forms for eligibility and will be shortlisted.

To register your interest & request an application form, please email ashehussain@googlemail.com